SICILY

Sicily draws on the mineral richness of Sicilian Ceppo stone to demonstrate that reinterpretation is itself a form of innovation. Its design retains the stone fragments and graphic depth that give the material its identity, while moving beyond its original colour palette to explore a more contemporary expression. Colour renews the perception of the material and opens up creative possibilities without undermining its natural credibility. Balanced, refined and rich in nuance, the collection works in harmony with woods, marbles, metals and cements, creating very different interiors through a consistent design language. A familiar stone, redesigned for the architecture of today.

Sicily parte de la riqueza mineral del Ceppo siciliano para demostrar que reinterpretar también es innovar. Su diseño conserva los fragmentos pétreos y la profundidad gráfica que dan identidad a esta piedra, pero se libera de su cromatismo original para explorar una expresión más contemporánea. El color renueva la percepción del material y abre caminos creativos sin restar credibilidad a su apariencia natural. Equilibrada, refinada y llena de matices, la colección dialoga con maderas, mármoles, metales o cementos y permite crear ambientes muy distintos bajo un mismo lenguaje. Una piedra conocida, diseñada de nuevo para la arquitectura del presente.
